- Read:
1. U.O No.6296/AC.B/KUHS dated 19/01/2015
  2. Decision No.FC 18.6 of the 18th finance committee dated 15/12/2015
  3. U O No.5208/Ac.A/2015/kuhs dated 08/01/2016

ORDER

As per UO read as (1) above, University has fixed the fee to be remitted by colleges for affiliation and allied matters of various courses/colleges/enhancement of seats . But as per the requests received from management association of Ayurveda colleges for rectifying the discrepancy in the refundable deposit fixed for new P G courses, the matter is placed before the finance committee held on 15/12/2015. The Committee observed that the disparity has to be rectified and resolved to approve the proposal of reducing the refundable deposit for Indian system of medicines and Homoeopathy from the existing Rs.8 lakh to Rs.5 lakh.

As per the reference (3) cited, Governing Council approved the finance committee decisions. Sanction has therefore been accorded by the Vice Chancellor for fixing the Refundable deposit as Rs.5 lakh for each new PG course in Indian systems of medicines and Homoeopathy .

Hence order read (1) above stands modified to this extent.
