ACADEMIC STAFF COLLEGE

Induction Training and Faculty Development Programme for Newly Appointed Assistant Professors in Homoeopathic Medical Colleges

Notification

Title of the Programme

“Induction Training and Faculty Development Programme for Newly Appointed Assistant Professors in Homoeopathic Medical Colleges” organized by Academic Staff College, Kerala University of Health Sciences (KUHS), Thrissur.

Background & Rationale

Homoeopathic medical education is at a transformative stage with the implementation of Competency-Based Dynamic Curriculum (CBDC) as per National Commission for Homoeopathy (NCH) guidelines. Newly joined Assistant Professors require orientation to adapt to modern teaching-learning practices, research methodologies, clinical responsibilities and the integration of classical Hahnemannian principles with contemporary pedagogical frameworks.

This programme is designed to enable young faculty to effectively engage in teaching, clinical training and research in Homoeopathy, ensuring high standards of professionalism and alignment with KUHS and NCH Regulations.

Objectives:

- Familiarize new Homoeopathy faculty with vision, mission, and academic framework of KUHS and NCH.
- Orient participants to Competency-Based Dynamic Curriculum (CBDC) in Homoeopathy.
- Train participants in teaching-learning methodologies suited for Homoeopathic education (case-based learning, bedside clinics, integrated teaching).
- Build capacity in student assessment (theory, viva, OSCE/OSPE, case-based assessment).
- Develop skills in research methodology, biostatistics, homoeopathic clinical research design.
- Reinforce understanding of medical ethics, professionalism, and gender sensitivity.
- Introduce faculty to digital pedagogy, blended learning, and innovative educational tools.
- Promote reflective practice and peer networking among young faculty.

Date & Duration

- Dates: 25/11/2025 to 27/11/2025 from 10 am to 5pm
- Duration: 3 Days (Full-day sessions)
