Order

Based on the Tentative Examination Calendar for 2018-19, the schedule for submission of final year Theses of PG Ayurveda students was to be fixed for second week of May, 2018. Now, it has been brought to the notice that Kerala Public Service Commission has notified the date of competitive examination for the post of Ayurveda Medical Officer, as 1st June, 2018. Consequent to this, the P G students' Association has requested to reschedule the final Theses submission date of PG Ayurveda students, from second week of May, 2018 to the last week of June, 2018 so that it is claimed that the final year students preparing for the above PSC examination will be benefited. The 15th meeting of Board of Examinations considered the matter and decided that the date of thesis submission of the MD/MS Ayurveda students (Final Year MD/MS (Ayurveda) examination, October-2018) is fixed as 25.06.2018 as a special case and this will not be treated as precedence, vide paper read as (1) above.

The 45th meeting of Governing Council has approved the decision of the Board of Examinations vide paper read as (2) above.

Vide paper read as (3) above, the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor has accorded sanction for implementing the decision of the GC with regard to the rescheduling of date of theses submission of the MD/MS Ayurveda students.

Orders are issued accordingly.
